THREE NEW CONCERNS DOING FINE BUSINESS.

The Bank of Cloverport, the Cloverport Foundry and Machine company and the Cloverport Real Estate and Improvement company, are three new concerns that are doing a fine business, though only recently organized. The first named concern has declared a dividend of four per cent and the two latter dividends of six per cent each.

The Bank of Cloverport has elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: F. P. Payne, president; J. C. Mattingly, vice president; M. Weatherholt, cashier; A. A. Simons, assistant cashier; F. P. Payne, J. C. Mattingly, J. A. Barry, J. W. Pate, A. A. Simons, M. Weatherholt, and Louis Baer, Owenboro, directors.

For the next six months the following will be the officers of the Cloverport Foundry and Machine company: J. A. Barry, president; J. W. Pate, vice president; M. Weatherholt, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Barry, J. C. Mattingly, J. W. Pate, J. C. Nolle, M. Weatherholt, directors.

The Cloverport Real Estate and Improvement company has elected the following officers: J. A. Barry, president; J. C. Nolle, vice president; M. Weatherholt, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Barry, J. C. Mattingly, J. W. Pate, J. C. Nolle, M. Weatherholt, and Louis Baer, Owenboro, directors.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM FOR CITY IS PROBABLE.

The street committee of the city council ordered a gasoline street lamp last Friday from the White Manufacturing Co., of Chicago, through Roub. Lewis, its local agent. The lamp will be tested by the city and if satisfactory, part or all of the town will be lighted in this manner, which will be much superior in point of efficiency and expense to the present system of illumination.

The gasoline light sold by the White Manufacturing company is known as the American Hydro Carbon light. The company claims that it has 1,000 candle power (the same as the arc electric light), and it is guaranteed to withstand all kinds of weather.

The cost of the present system of lighting the streets with coal oil lamps is $200 a year, or about $7.50 for each lamp. Though the gasoline lamps will cost $35 each, the cost of lighting a sufficient number of them to illuminate the main part of the town would be only $100.30 a year, and, to light all of the town, proportionately less than the present system, in view of the greater efficiency.

Councilman McCracken proposed the new system and has computed the costs.

SNYDER-DENTON.

Mr. Philip Snyder and Miss Lena Denton will be married on January 20 at the Baptist church at Garfield by Rev. E. B. English. Mr. Snyder is a prosperous farmer and Miss Denton a popular young school teacher. They will take a bridal trip embracing Cincinnati, Chicago and other large cities.

The partners of Mr. Snyder and Miss Denton were in Saturday's Louisville Times.

I. J. Mookens was the guest of friends in Louisville part of last week.

Tobacco Growers of Breckenridge County Meet at Hardinsburg and Agree to Sell Their Crops as Unit at $8 Round, No More, No Less.

VICTORY DRAWING NEARER FOR RIGHT AND MIGHT.

When a farmer makes up his mind to do a thing he can do it well, do it quick and do a great deal. At Ryan's schoolhouse, near this city, a few farmers met, twelve of them formed themselves into a local union of the American Society of Equity, and, in twenty minutes, they pledged themselves to hold 150,000 pounds of tobacco for the prices set by the Lynchburg convention. It took them a long time to make up their minds to take this decisive step, but they finally took it and they took it quick. But there are dozens of other farmers in this county, as well as in many other counties, who decided much sooner to take this step and the result is that they are still holding, and it doesn't matter to them if the trust doesn't like it. Farmers of this spirit, determined farmers acting for rights which have been trampled on for years, were the kind that met at Hardinsburg last Saturday to decide on the best plans for holding their tobacco for the Lynchburg convention prices. And they were three to four hundred strong and would have been a thousand or more strong if the weather had not been so inclement. And what they did in the old courthouse at Hardinsburg thousands of other farmers are doing in other counties, and nearer and nearer victory appears to those who are in the right, and are proving that they are in the right.

At the meeting Saturday Granville Wilson was elected chairman of the county union of the A. S. of E. for the ensuing year, Joel H. Pile secretary, W. S. Ball, vice-president, Silas Miller, treasurer. Speeches were made by several farmers advocating various plans for getting better prices. It was agreed to hold for the Lynchburg price of $8 round for dark tobacco, as a result of the discussions. S. J. Baker, of Patesville, delegate from Hancock county to the Lynchburg convention, reviewed the action of the convention. He told how the price of $8 was arrived at. The cost to produce 100 pounds, he said, was placed at $8, this including labor at $1 per day, interest, wood, canvas, fertilizer, etc. To this was added $2 for profit. He gave statistics gathered by the government in regard to tobacco. The amount raised in 1900 was 1,374,000,000 pounds, in 1904, 200,000,000, a reduction of nearly one half in production. Mr. Baker said that out of 700 tobacco growers in Hancock county 400 had pledged to hold their tobacco for $8, round and 300 had refused. More interest is manifested there over this question, he said, than over politics.

R. H. McGarock, of near this city, also talked in an interesting way about the work in Hancock county. The chair, on motion, appointed a committee, composed of S. J. Baker, J. D. Babbage and Silas Miller, to draft a plan and present it to the convention for adoption.

W. S. Ball objected to the adoption of the report. He advocated making $8 the average price and having the tobacco graded by two men in each local union, and each member hold for the price first upon his tobacco.

Mr. Baker addressed the convention and opposed the grading of the tobacco and insisted that the price of $8 should be the minimum.

H. A. Walker also advocated the adoption of the resolution.

Granville S. Wilson moved to strike out the first clause of the resolutions and substitute the Hancock county plan.

Mr. Fledge Carter opposed the plan of selling at $8 the tobacco as a unit.

The first clause of the resolutions was finally stricken out and the Hancock county resolutions adopted. The gist of the resolutions is that the tobacco belonging to each local union shall be sold as a unit and at $8 round and by a committee of three members of the local union, appointed to make the contract with the buyer.

The chairman stated that the crop in this county is 45 per cent of a fall crop.

W. B. Taul moved that the tobacco growers of the county meet in Cloverport on Saturday, February 4, the motion carried. This meeting is distinct from the next regular quarterly meeting of the county union at Hardinsburg.

This is an interior power; it is the power of the soul. When a man hates his work or is about it with indifference all the following day he cannot make his work fruitful. With enthusiasm he will do his office moves of himself; not only he needless to compel him, but it would be impossible to turn him aside. The unwillingness of the soul to do anything is to have felt the sanctity of the immortal being in our obscure duty; to have been led by a series of preferences to love this life for its gifts and its duties; to be conscious of its weakness and their greatness and belong to humanity through the being the intelligence and the soul. Then the unwillingness to do anything is as the wind of the sails of a ship, it bears us toward pity and justice, as yielding to its irresistible impulse, as the wind helps it, it something stronger than the wind. The man of all times and places is designated a power that is above humanity, but which may dwell in humanity, which may be above humanity within us appears to us as a manifestation of this mystery beyond. Our feelings, like great thoughts and deeds, are vital forces. The trees and trees bear and bear fruit it is because it draws vital forces from the soil and receives light and warmth from the sun. If a man, in his humble sphere in the life of humanity, is conscious that himself is his inevitably consecrated himself sincerely to his task, it is because he is in contact with the eternal power of goodness and truth. The manifestation of himself under a thousand forms. Sometimes it is indolent laziness; sometimes winning tenderness; sometimes the militant spirit that grows and grows. To be continued.

THOUGHTS.

"No man is a true lover of his country whose confidence in its progress and greatness is limited to the period of his own life, and we cannot afford, for one instant, to forget that our country is only at the beginning of its growth." President Roosevelt.

The Hon. Chas. Blanford says he is out of politics, so far as being a candidate for any office. He is still a Republican, however, and believes the principles of his party are the best on earth and that Roosevelt is his ideal exponent of those principles. "Just say it to my friends that I am living a quiet, peaceful life on my farm enjoying my own hog and hominy and the fellowship of my neighbors."

As we said, some time ago, the tobacco trust is right up against the real thing. They can't buy tobacco in this county unless they pay the price. The growers have said so and they intend to stand by their word. Their demands are not unreasonable. All they want is a living price for their product. Everybody knows they have not been getting it in the past. And now that they have come to their senses and demanded their price, the same as other producers, some people are disposed to criticize them and say they are arbitrary, that they are going crazy and that they will never be able to get their demands. We say they are doing no such thing. They are not asking too much. The price they have set is fair, equitable and just, and if they stand together they will get it. Every banker, merchant and business man should stand by the farmer in his fight for his right.

The Hon. Gus Richardson had to "butt in" on the farmers' meeting at Hardinsburg last Saturday where he was not wanted or called. He pretended to be a great friend of the farmer, when, in fact, he is not. He's against their very best interests, as he is against the very best interests of every class except one. No man who stands for the saloon and the distillery is a friend to the community which he proposes to represent. We want to give the Democrats fair warning that if they nominate him they can't elect.

A good Democrat in Haverhill said to the News: "I have made up my mind that in the future I won't cast my vote for any man who is a gambler, a drunkard or a saloon keeper, no matter if he is the nominee of my party." When men in all parties stand for the best manhood in their party nominations and refuse to support men who get their nominations by appealing to the voter through the jug or the bottle, then we will have good, clean, square-dealing men in our offices.

The merchants, bankers and business men of Lewisport are standing by the farmers in their fight for better prices for tobacco. Nearly all the merchants are members of the A. S. of E.

Prosperity is what we are all working for. We all know that the farmer is the foundation for our prosperity. If he is not prosperous we all feel it. Then why not work with him and help him in his struggle for better prices for his products? There is a cry all over the country against the monopoly in capital in labor, but very little attention has been paid to the monopoly in prices of farm products, especially of tobacco. The farmer has only been getting a little above 3 cents average for his tobacco of late years, while the manufacturers have been getting anywhere from 30 to 40 cents per pound for their products. There is too big a gap between the price of the raw material and the finished products. Farm labor is not making 30 cents a day, while the labor that goes into the manufactured article gets anywhere from $1 to $4 per day. This is not based on equity or on products either. It's been the custom of the manufacturer to buy his raw material as low as he could and sell his product at the highest price. He has paid no attention to the men who furnish him with his raw material. And it is all for the reason that the farmer never realized his importance and that he was the greatest factor in the production and the building up of the tobacco interests of the country. Unless tobacco is raised the manufacturers will have to go out of business. And now it has come to the point unless the farmer gets more for his product he will have to go out. And the farmer can do this. He don't have to grow tobacco. He can grow other things that are just as profitable or more so and he will do it if he does not get better prices than he has been getting. So the only thing for the tobacco trust to do, if it wants to stay in business, is to give the farmer a fair and equitable price for his tobacco.

THE LIGHT IS SPREADING.

From the Wall Street Journal.

One of the singular prejudices to be taken into account in financial journalism is the conviction in some quarters that "no good thing can come out of Nazareth." In place of the gratuitous assumption of discreditable motives of views emanating from Wall Street there is growing an appreciation of the fact that the information and discussion of facts and policies may be disinterested and entirely in the interest of the investor and of the general welfare. That the light is spreading in this respect is indicated by articles like the following from the Breckenridge News published at Cloverport, Kentucky. The News announces itself as "just a plain country weekly with a circulation." Its comments are worthy of attention as representative of southern views. It says:

"The Wall Street Journal is one of the best and most conservative papers that comes to our sanctum. We read it with a great deal of interest and profit. The time was when we wouldn't look at anything that came out of Wall Street save the bright, crisp bank notes, which, they say, is the only thing good that comes from that great center inhabited by the money devils. But we find on getting in closer touch with them that Wall Street is made up of about the same people as we are. They have their ups and downs and their troubles just like we do. There are good men and bad men on Wall Street. There are rich men and poor men, and there are men who have to struggle just as hard as the common run of men thousand of miles away. It is not all sunshine in Wall Street. And another thing we have learned about Wall Street, that there is a conservative element there that rules, that holds the wild-cat fellows in check just like they do in every community, and The Wall Street Journal is this character of paper. It is well edited. It is free from abuse and is as much interested in the welfare and upbuilding of the south as it is in its own section."

The party travel on the Cincy, a handsome gasoline launch, which they built themselves at Jersey City. They are on their way down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. The Cincy has a length of thirty-eight feet and a beam of ten feet and has twin screw engines. The show, the members of the company and the boat they travel on, have received much notice from papers in Cincinnati and other large river cities.

HOLDING MEETING.

Rev. J. F. Winchell, of Tobinport, Ind., and Rev. W. V. Harrel, of Hardinsburg, went to Pleasant Valley, Spencer county, Ind., last Friday, to hold a protracted meeting in the Baptist church at that place. Revs. Winchell and Harrel have engaged in much of this kind of work together and have had much success.

OPPORTUNITY TO RISE.

Geo. Getzendanner, formerly of this city, has the opportunity to be appointed assistant receiver at Lake-and-Ashland, a position over his present position. His friends, however, have advised him not to change his position. Gov. Beckham will make the appointment.

TO START SALOON.

James Masterson, of Troy, and T. L. Casey, of Cloverport, will start a new saloon in operation shortly. They will occupy the building where the Haverhill Bank is now located and the latter will move to the new brick recently erected by W. C. Kelly, which will be their new home.—Haverhill Plaindealer.

NO AGENT NEEDED.

Earl Clark, who has resigned his position as local agent of the Cincinnati Cooperative company and now has a position with the Henderson Route, says that the company does not need an agent here any longer as the concern has no more business at this point.

ANOTHER CHANGE.

The publication day of the Haverhill Plaindealer has been changed from Thursday to Tuesday.

There is no reason for this change save that friends have requested it and that the management considers it the proper business move.

THE BEST EVER.

The reports of the city officers for the year ending December 31, 1904, are published in this issue. City Attorney Jas. R. Skillman says that, in his opinion, the reports are the best ever made.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of our mother and grandmother. Mrs. Ulrich Farber and Family.

ECLIPSES OF 1905.

There will be four eclipses during the year 1905—two of the moon and two of the sun. Two will be visible in Kentucky, a partial eclipse of the moon August 14 and a partial eclipse of the sun on August 30.

BUYS BURLEY.

Calish Hawkins bought two crops of Burley last week, paying $10,000. They were Mrs. Cynthia Dowell's and Israel Dowell's, at Sample. The two crops will aggregate about ten to twelve thousand pounds.

WILL MOVE HERE.

Prof. Frank J. City, of Floral, was in town Saturday and informs us that he will move to Breckenridge county, as soon as his school is out. We regret to lose him as he is one of Hancock's best teachers.—Haverhill Plaindealer.

Scrofula

is very often acquired, though generally inherited. Bad hygiene, foul air, impure water, are among its causes. It is called "the soil for tubercles," and where it is allowed to remain tuberculosis or consumption is pretty sure to take root.

THE WHEAT CROP.

The general impression among farmers seems to be that the rains have materially helped the prospects of wheat next year. While there are some people who still fear that the long drought has ruined the wheat crop the majority of those who have investigated conditions are of the opinion that the prospects have been greatly improved by the rain.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astounding about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take it to naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, I.e., a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

W. H. Brown, Candidate for Republi- can Nomination for County Judge in Hancock County.

The above is one of the best men in Hancock County. Republicans and Democrats recognize him as such. He is clean, sober and reliable, a fair, square man, deserving of the nomination and of election. We contribute this notice to the man as we have known him for years. The Clarion, his home paper, says "he is an excellent citizen," and it covers the whole ground.

GOOD TRUE NEWS.

torial candidate, was in town Friday, having just returned from a tour of where he had been looking after his old home county of Breckenridge will be the handsome thing by him, while he will surprise even his most enthusiastic friends in Meade. The primary election will be held Saturday, January 26th.—Hancock Clarion.

Bryan Tobacco Company Association of Kentucky take the crop off the hand of the growers every year and dispose of it at more advantageous prices than are now obtained from the big tobacco companies.

The horsetail changes whorls by
With puff and dash and flourish
Through every breath of ours may fly
A wireless telegram:
The scudless reign on the plate
We joyfully devour.

Trains are perfected while we wait—
Here comes the fadless flower.

The careless apple is announced.
The whistles school is here—
No scholar any more is trounced
By teacher kind and dear.

The scudless onion now is grown.
Improve every hour
Into the scheme of things is thrown—
Behold the fadless flower!

The jokeless comedy we see;
The careless horse we drive;
The honky arrived to you and me
Come from a useless hive;

Buckwheat's luckless cakes we eat
And gather strengthless power.
Some new thing every day we greet—
Observe the fadless flower!

Oh, would they freeze some mottled ice
Or make some footless gait,
Or fadless food without a price—
Fate is unkind, alas!

Henceforth the maiden fair to see
Will grow reserved and shy
And say, "Bring wither blooms to me
No cheap old fadless flower!"

THE SURRENDER

Terms At Port Arthur—Terrific Slaughter, And Hugh Totals of Dead And Wounded

RUSSIANS WANT WAR TO STOP.

The terms of the surrender of Port Arthur last week were as follows: "All of the Russian soldiers, marines and civil officials of the garrison and harbor were made prisoners. All of the fort batteries, vessels, ammunition, etc., were transferred to the Japanese in the condition in which they existed at noon on January 3.

The Russian military and naval authorities furnished to the Japanese army an exhibit of all fortifications underground and submarine mines, a list of the military officers, of ships and number of their crews and of civilians, both men, with their race and occupation, and all public property, such as buildings, munitions of war etc. were left in the present position, pending arrangement for their transportation.

The officers of the army and navy were permitted to retain their swords and such of their personal property as is directly necessary for the maintenance of life and with one servant each, may upon signing their parole not to take up arms during the continuance of war, return to Russia.

Non-commissioned officers and privates were to be treated as prisoners. For the benefit of the Russian sick and wounded the sanitary corps and accountants belonging to the Russian army and navy will be required to serve under the Japanese sanitary corps and accountants for such a period of time as is deemed necessary.

Slaughter Was Terrific.

A Chinese dispatch says: "Originally General Kosev's army numbered 35,000. Of these, 11,000 were killed, 16,000 wounded or sick and 8,000 remained in the forts, of which 2,000 are unable to fight."

Hugh Totals of Dead.

The totals of dead and wounded in the Far Eastern war are as follows: Casualties, Japanese 36,000; Russians 67,000.

Doubt Early Peace.

Tokio, Jan. 4.—The weight of opinion in Japanese official circles seems against the belief in an early conclusion of peace and doubt is expressed that the fall of Port Arthur will materially affect the situation.

"Down With The War."

Moscow, Jan. 4.—There was a demonstration in front of the Duma building, the palace today. Crowds paraded the violence and stoned the palace and cried "Down with the war."

No Were Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removable by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Asheville, Mich., says: "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. Now she eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief. I will give it to all my friends."

GUARANTORS MUST PAY.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 5.—The judgment of the Davies Circuit Court in the case of the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association against W. H. Miller and others, involving the liability of the guarantors of the State Fair held at Owensboro in 1903, was reversed by the Court of Appeals at today's session and the case remanded for further proceedings consistent with an opinion of the court here, delivered by Judge O'Rear.

The whole court considered the case on appeal, and the finding is that the undersigned of the subscribers or guarantors to bear the loss in holding the fair has become absolute.

In order to secure the State Fair for Davies county in 1903 certain of its business men guaranteed the sum of $30,430.78. Its receipts were $21,591.49, leaving a deficit of $8,839.29. In an action by the association and the citizens' bank it was sought to recover the deficit. The court below sustained a demurrer to the petition.

NOT A CANDIDATE

For Senator Or To Succeed Himself Is Representative Smith—Makes A Statement.

BEE IN CONGRESS TEN YEARS.

Washington, Jan. 1.—Representative Smith of the Fourth Kentucky district, announced to friends at the Capitol today that he would not be a candidate against Senator Blackburn in the forthcoming senatorial contest, and also added that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself in the House. "When I have concluded the term for which I have been elected," said Representative Smith, "I will have served ten years in Congress. It is a longer period than any other man ever served from the district, and I felt that I should step out and allow some other man to have the place. I deeply appreciate the honor which has been conferred upon me, and the requests of my friends with whom I have discussed the matter, that I again make the race. I have decided, however, not to again become a candidate."

It is expected that there will be a lively race for Smith's place in the House. The district contains some pretty good congressional timber, and there will likely be five or six candidates to announce themselves at an early date. Mr. Smith's announcement came rather in the nature of a surprise here. He is the oldest member of the House of Representatives in the House from Kentucky, and has done a great deal in forwarding the interests of the State and his district in Congress. It is understood that he would have had no opposition for any term. As a member of the Judiciary Committee, Mr. Smith has taken high rank in the House, and has always been given a part in the most important work coming before the committee.

Zero Weather.

Is apt to freeze your ears, nose, hands and feet. You don't notice it at the time but later on it is painful, and sometimes dangerous. It draws out the frost because it opens the pores of the skin, induces perspiration, and stimulates the circulation. Paracomp prevents erysipelas and dreads blood poisoning.

CAUSE OF WRECK.

I will make a statement which will be challenged, but which cannot be disproved. The abnormally heavy locomotive, now the standard on American railroads, is the positive cause of a large percentage of railroad accidents, most of which are charged against other factors of equipment or service. The cause for powerful locomotives set in at 1878. Prior to that time the average locomotive weighed from twenty-five to thirty tons.

It is an open secret that hundreds of accidents have been charged against misplaced switches when the cause should be "ripped up switches." It seems impossible to construct interlocking switches which are safe against the well-nigh irresistible impact of 100 or more tons of metal rolling forward at a speed of seventy miles an hour. The tracks and switches are too weak for the locomotives. There is a doubt in the world about it. There is not a railroad man in the country who does not know that the statement is absolutely true.—Frederic C. Adams, in Success.

OBITUARY.

The angel of death invaded the home of Mr. Daniel Dowell and claimed for its victim their youngest son, Harvey, aged twenty-six years. His remains were taken to Cold Freedom and laid to rest in the family graveyard. Harvey had passed from our sight and we stand amazed and wonder why he was taken. We don't understand why, just as his eager hands were outstretched and ready for work, just in the beginning, and in the midst of his career he was called away. We can only say, "God's way is not ours; some day we may understand."

Long, long will we miss thee, Harvey. Long, long days for thee we'll weep. And through many nights of sorrow, Memory of thy dear face keep.

HOW TO GET RICH.

Elizabeth Norton says: "We had under the impression that if we will scrub and pinch and rob your family, wear a calico skirt a week without washing, use celluloid collars and buy one overcoat in twenty years and come and dance and sweep every time your family buys 25 cents worth of sugar or coffee, make your wife do all the scrubbing, washing and ironing and baking, give nothing to anybody and no let a ray of sunshine into your glass, you will be rich. You will also burn, as you ought to."

HE IS A JONAH.

So Thinks Captain Marion Ryan About Himself And Tells of Experience on River.

HAS RUN INTO MANY STORMS.

"In the twenty-three years that I have been running on the Ohio river," declared Captain Ryan, of the Morning Star, yesterday, says Wednesday's Owensboro Messenger, in part, "I have never started out on a trip after a rise but what I ran into adverse weather of some kind almost before I got under way. I mean absolutely that it has happened to me every time there has been a rise following a stage of water low enough to tie us up."

"I caught it last night, although the weather men had been predicting fair weather as hard as ever they could. I was prepared for it, though. I have been caught in fogs, hurricanes, rainstorms, sand storms, hail storms, snow storms and such things too often when the weather was slated to be fair and balmy and I am too far advanced in the school of experience to be caught again without such preparation as I can make."

"I guess I am a Jonah to the packers," he continued. "In my twenty-three years on the river I have been on nearly every racket the Louisville and Evansville Packet company has operated and I have run the river higher than last year. The trust has readily agreed to pay the prices in order to break down the organization, and is employing farmer buyers to carry out their plans."

Seven Cents in Union.

Seven cents round is the minimum price for tobacco as fixed by the growers of Union county.

A meeting of the farmers and those interested in tobacco was held in the court house in this city yesterday afternoon.

The meeting was well-attended, indicating that the growers of the weed are in earnest about the fight now being made against low prices. Several interesting talks were made and resolutions offered. That of greatest importance was the one fixing 7 cents round as the minimum price at which the present crop is to be sold.

A was made on these grounds to sign an agreement "not to sell at less than 7 cents. This call resulted in signatures representing 235,000 pounds of tobacco.—Louisville Telegram.

From Clarksville, under date of January 3, comes the following: "The members of the Dark Tobacco District Planters' association met yesterday. There was a large attendance and much enthusiasm. The farmers say the higher price of tobacco has been caused by the organization and the members of the association are holding their crops for still higher prices. The farmers are all confident of victory and are prepared to make a bitter fight. Nearly one million pounds of additional tobacco were pledged to the association at today's meeting. Chairman Ewing said that he had received telegrams from reliable farmers living in West Tennessee and Kentucky to the effect that the report sent out that 8,000,000 pounds had been sold was false. He said but little tobacco had been marketed in that section."

Few Sales in Daviess.

Less than seventy-five loads of tobacco have been sold at auction in Owensboro this season. Only a few have been delivered from private sale, and it is probable that, all told, not more than 100 loads have changed hands in Owensboro since last spring. Prices have been better by some bit than at corresponding dates last year, not at all time has the average price reached the figure which the growers think ought to prevail. This appears to be the real cause why more tobacco has not been put on the market. Buyers say that the prices have not been better because the grade of tobacco offered has been poor. Most of the buyers think that the crop will begin to move freely within a short time.—Wednesday's Owensboro Messenger.

What Farmers Over Kentucky Are Doing To Secure Better Prices For Their Tobacco.

SITUATION SEEN BY EXCHANGES.

For the benefit of hundreds of our readers who are interested in the strong movement on the part of the farmers in Kentucky to secure higher prices for their tobacco, we print below views of the situation as seen by exchanges in different parts of the State.

Trust Changes Tactics.

The latest information is that the tobacco trust will change its tactics in regard to the farmers' organization, says the Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

The trust realizes at last that it cannot buy the present tobacco crop at half price, as was done last year.

Practically all of the farmers are in the movement organized, and those not in the movement are smart enough to demand an increased price, profiting by the equity of their more public-spirited citizens.

20 crops have been sold at the starvation prices the trust doled out in classes last year. All sales made have been for the whole crop and at prices 25 to 50 per cent higher than last year. The trust has readily agreed to pay the prices in order to break down the organization, and is employing farmer buyers to carry out their plans.

BABY'S FACE MASS OF SORES

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Body Entirely Covered with Humor—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. George J. Stivers, of 707 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disgusting skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed: "I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without result. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was eaten away, her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body was as clear as a newborn babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

MEDICAL EXAMINER

Of the United States Treasury Recommends Per-ru-na.

Other Prominent Physicians Use and Endorse Per-ru-na.

Dr. L. L. WELLYN Jordan, Medical Examiner of the U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years West Point, has the following to say of Peruna: "Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."

A constantly increasing number of physicians prescribe Peruna in their practice. It has proven its merits so thoroughly that even the doctors have overcome their prejudice against so called patent medicines and recommend it to their patients.

Peruna occupies a unique position in medical science. It is the only internal systemic catarrh remedy known to the medical profession today. Catarrh, as everyone will admit, is the cause of one-half the disease which afflicts mankind. Catarrh and catarrhal diseases afflict one-half of the people of United States.

Robert R. Roberts, M. D., Washington, writes:

"Through my own experience as well as that of many of my friends and acquaintances who have been cured or relieved of catarrh by the use of Hartman's Peruna, I can confidently recommend it to those suffering from such disorders, and have no hesitation in prescribing it to my patients."

Robert R. Roberts.

Dr. R. Robbins, Muskegon, L. T., writes:

"Peruna is the best medicine I know of for coughs and to strengthen a weak stomach and to give appetite. Besides prescribing it for catarrh, I have ordered it for weak and debilitated people, and have not a patient but said it helped him. It is an excellent medicine and it fits so many cases."

"I have a large practice, and have chance to prescribe your Peruna. I hope you may live long to do good to the sick and the suffering."

Dr. M. C. Gee, writes from 213 Jones St., San Francisco, Cal.:

"Peruna has performed so many wonderful cures in San Francisco that I am convinced that it is a valuable remedy. I have frequently advised its use for Catarrh is a systemic disease curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must act directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does.

Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve-centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catarrh disappears. Then catarrh is permanently cured.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
